

EXTRAMURAL TALK ON "WRITINGS FROM
THE MARGINS" By ASSOCIATE PROF. MAIDULA KINDO
IGNOU, NEW DELHI
ON 16/09/2023

P.G. Department of English, SB Women's (Auto) College, Cuttack organised a 2 hours programme on "Extramural lecture - writings From the Margins: Tribal literature", delivered by Prof. Dr. Maidula Kindo, IGNOU, NEW DELHI on virtual mode at 3 pm on 16/9/2023, in which the teachers of the Department, including the students of both UG & PG wholeheartedly participated. Prof. Kindo in her talk made a detailed anatomy on the writings of the Margins, across the world - especially Asia, Africa and Indian Subcontinent, where the Margins, marginalised and tribal aborigines went through the traumatic situations. In it, a group of non-tribal writers expressed their resentments in their major literary works such as fictions and plays. Recently, a few conscious marginalised of margins sincerely reflected their angst in their writing. At the closing session of the talk, an inter-active session followed by questionnaire from teachers and students who made the discussion more lively. As it was ritualistic, the talk began with a welcome Address by principal Prof. Dr. Gayatri Biswal and introductory address by HOD, English, Dr. Sashikanta Barin & Dr. Dr. Riptipanda, the talk had its final curtain by the valedictory address by Asst. Prof. Rituparna Sen. In the mosaic of this brilliant extramural talk by Prof. Kindo, Guest lecturers such as

Dr Tapas Das, Juhsee Panda, Abhishek Menap, Bismita Mohapalra, Soumya Somalika, Aparna Sahoo and Sweta Rathor contributed immensely to give it a nice finish.

Members Present

- 1) Dr Sashikanta Barcia - HOD English
- 2) Dr Bipti pand - Asst. Prof. of English
- 3) Rituparna Sen - Asst. Prof. of English
- 4) Abhishek Menap - Guest lecturer
- 5) Dr Tapas Das - Guest lecturer
- 6) Juhsee Panda - Guest lecturer
- 7) Bismita Mohapalra - Guest lecturer
- 8) Soumya Somalika - Guest lecturer
- 9) Aparna Sen - Guest lecturer
- 10) Sweta Rathor - Guest lecturer

(Sd/-)
Dr Bipti Pand
16/09/2023
22.09.23

16/09/2023